

MARLFIELDS NEWSLETTER

28th March 2023

May we please remind you that this Friday (31st March) is an INSET Day for staff, therefore there are NO children in school. Children are expected back in school for Monday 3rd and Tuesday 4th April after which we then break up for the Easter break. School re-opens for all on 17th April.

Please see the holiday dates below for the rest of this academic year and the NEXT academic year.

EASTER SERVICE

You are all invited to come into school next Tuesday (4th April) to share with us our Easter Celebration Service.

It will take place in the School Hall at 9:30am. Refreshments will be available before the service.

The Friends of Marlfields have very kindly bought an Easter Egg for all of the children to receive as they leave the service, for which we thank them.

PARKING

We are once more receiving complaints from our neighbours on The Westlands and on Waggs Road about parents parking inconsiderately. Parking in badly chosen places could also put your child in danger if they are unable to see to cross safely!

When dropping off and picking up your children please, as you are parking, ask yourself, am I going to inconvenience or upset anyone by parking here? If the answer is 'Yes' please park elsewhere.

Our neighbours on The Westlands are by and large elderly and therefore feel vulnerable especially when cars park facing their homes which makes them feel intimidated.

We all need to live together in this great big world, and if we can alleviate someone's anxiety by parking elsewhere and walking a bit further– let's do it!

EASTER HOLIDAY CLUB

You will have already received a couple of e-mails about the forthcoming Easter Holiday Club. We usually hold the club here, but are having some work done that can only be done during school holidays, so the club this holiday will be at Eaton Bank.

We have a few free places if anyone is interested. If this may be of interest, please contact Mrs Isherwood for further details.
